

TEDx Speaker and Entrepreninja Reminds Us We Are All A Good Mix of Something

Meet Christina Aldan for the first time and you will feel as if you have known her all your life. She is proof that perseverance and a desire to learn will propel you towards living a life you love.

Forward • Positive • Creative

“What are you?” is a question Christina Aldan has been asked by strangers since she was a little girl growing up on the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. Born to a Caucasian mother and a Chinese father she never knew, the answer was riddled with shame and pain - reminders of a childhood in poverty and kids treating her like an outsider for being the nerdy Asian bookworm.

The question “what are you?” would ultimately lead Christina to discover that the answer is ever-evolving and that we are all defined by the sum of each experience, relationship and struggle we embrace by stepping away from what’s comfortable and welcoming the adventure that comes with jumping in to the deep end of the pool and figuring out how to swim.

We live in a world where connecting and building a tribe of like-minded people, new customers and supporters is filled with possibilities. That ultimately led Christina to focus her unique set of skills towards guiding small business owners (especially women!) through the world of technology. For over a decade, Christina has been helping clients realize the full potential of their businesses by creating strategic advertising campaigns and processes. She coaches female entrepreneurs into living the kind of lifestyle to which they aspire.
